GEO. O. WHITE IS FREE.

The State Board of Pardons Confirms the Action of the Governor.

The board of pardons yesterday by a twothirds rote approved Gov. Rickards' action in pardoning Geo. O. White, serving a three-year term at the Deer Lodge penitentiary. Secretary of State Rotwitt and Attorney-General Backell assented and State Auditor Cook voted against confirming the pardon. The pardon granted is a conditional one. White must leave the state immediatly and not return. His reintives at Dickinson, N. D., have furnished money for White's transportation there and they have agreed to keep and care for him. The governor in his letter to the board gives as his reasons for granting pardon to White the fact that the prisoner received a serious injury while working on the prison wall some time ago: that be cannot be properly treated there, and that with proper treatment he can recover. In view of these facts the governor granted the pardon, first providing that White should not become a burden to any community in Montans.

White was sent up from Yellowstone State Auditor Cook voted against confirmmunity in Montana.

White was sent up from Yellowstone county for aiding a prisone: to escape from the county for il at Billings, Sept. 6, 1898. The men he tied to free were his Brother, Frank L. White, and A. L. Moore, who had been convicted of stealing horses near Heal Lodge. White held a gun on a servant girl at the jail and demanded the keps. The girl screamed and aiarmed the neighborhood. White mounted a horse and escaped into the bad lands down the Yellowstone. The sheriff and posses pursued the fugitive many miles, but fluxily had to give up the chase. White returned to Billings and was afterwards captured.
